My volunteer experience overall was very worthwhile. Escuela Central was very opening and offered many projects for me. It was a new experience to see the children in Costa Rica and how they learn. I had to shift my views and perspectives to really get into it and get the most out of it. During the two weeks vacation I taught the adults english, which again was very worthwhile. It was a new experience and I learned a lot. The food again was a new experience for me and I did enjoy it a lot even the strange dishes. Those were the best, especially the ceviche and cows tongue. Anyways very good, I will recommend this program to all my friends.
